) MEMORANDUM OF OPINION
) (NOT FOR PUBLICATION)

Now before the court is the Amended Petition for Release of Unclaimed Funds filed by Abe O. Troyer. The court has jurisdiction of this case and matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 and 28 U.S.C. § 157. Venue in this district is appropriate under 11 U.S.C. § 1409.

This opinion is not intended for publication or citation. The availability of this opinion, in electronic or printed form, is not the result of a direct submission by the court.

FACTS

Debtor operated A & M Investments, an investment company located in Ohio's Amish community. His activities would later be described as an Amish Ponzi scheme. Abe O. Troyer and Katie Troyer were victims who invested funds with A & M Investments.

Debtor filed bankruptcy on June 30, 2010. On January 18, 2011, Mr. Troyer filed a claim (#934-1) in Debtor's bankruptcy case for $11,824.71. Attached to the claim is a copy of a record from A & M Investments dated April 1, 2010 that shows the account was in the name "Abe and Katie Troyer." The claim amount corresponds to a "total investment" figure contained in the account statement. No objections to the claim were filed.

The chapter 7 trustee issued a check in the amount of $2,002.98 to Abe and Katie Troyer which was never negotiated, resulting in its deposit into the unclaimed funds registry. Abe Troyer now seeks to recover those funds. The issue for the court is that Mr. Troyer submitted a death certificate for Katie Troyer indicating she passed away in 2009, before the bankruptcy case and claim were filed.

DISCUSSION

Section 347 of the bankruptcy code establishes a deadline and a procedure for a trustee under chapters 7, 12 and 13 to deposit uncashed checks into the court's unclaimed funds account. Recovery is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 2041, et seq. To aid in recovery, the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Ohio adopted Local Bankruptcy Rule 3011-1. The standardized forms adopted therein allow a claimant to demonstrate his/her entitlement to unclaimed funds.

Mr. Troyer, individually, is attempting to recover funds held in the name of Abe and Katie Troyer jointly. Unfortunately, the record before the court does not establish his right to the entirety of the funds. Based on the present record, the court must conclude that the funds were held jointly, without right of survivorship, in equal shares, by Abe and Katie Troyer. Wright v. Bloom, 69 Ohio St.3d 596, 607 (Ohio Sup. Ct. 1994); Lewis v. KeyBank, 2003 WL 99621 (Ohio Ct. App. 6th Dist. 2003) (citing Vaughan v. Union Bank & Sav. Co. (In re Grieger), 172 B.R. 222, 225 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1994)); In re Lowe, 2003 WL 22966855 (Ohio Ct. App. 5th Dist. 2003). Consequently, Mr. Troyer is entitled to, at most, half, while the estate of Mrs. Troyer is entitled to the remaining half, and the court cannot release the claim solely to Mr. Troyer.

Mr. Troyer may be entitled to the funds based on proof that he is Mrs. Troyer's legal heir. Generally this requires proof from a probate court or a will, and papers from a probate court would control. Alternatively, if Mr. Troyer could show that the funds were held jointly with a right of survivorship, or overcome the presumption that the joint funds were held in equal shares, or demonstrate that he is entitled to the funds under Ohio's statute of descent and distribution, O.R.C. § 2105.06, he may be entitled to the entire claim.

Under this backdrop, the court finds that Mr. Troyer has three alternatives for pursuing recovery of the funds. First, he can retain an attorney who understands this matter to represent him. Second, Mr. Troyer can contact the court and arrange a time to appear in court and testify on these matters, which will involve answering questions similar to those presented in Exhibit A. Third, Mr. Troyer can complete Exhibit A and file it with the court. Based on his answers, the court will determine if it can release the funds to Mr. Troyer without additional action.

The court will also issue an order in conjunction with this opinion.
